

Section VII

ADMINISTRATIVE SET UP:

Village Council (kho Devan):- The village Council is headed by Gaonbura (G.B) He is assisted by the following:-

- a) Tar ulien:- Consists of eight eldermost, they are to as the executive members, can advise the Gaonbura for making rules and regulation for welfare of the village.
- b) Sazom:- Consisting eight next elder mosts as the active members of the Council, From these members, a member is selected called sazom ulien to assist the Gaonbura in running the administration, as Secretary. He is the chief spokeman, adviser, in social, economic and judicial affairs. If any problem arise, he is to inform the Gaonbura.
- c) Tangva ulien:- He is selected from the village youth. He looks after the welfare of youth and village development.
- d) Tangva bop:- A couple of minor youths are selected by the village council. They are to announce the important matters to the villagers by shouting on top of the voice, (tang insam) so as to be hear by the villagers from every corner of the village, they give informations of the proceedings of the village council to all the head of the families in the village.

Parhruilak:- When the official seat (kalaim, kabur and chapia) is vacant on death or by any circumstances, the Halom Devan (Halam Council) have to decide the next clan candidate, the appointed/selected clan will select the candidate in their pafong Devan. Then the selected person/ party will have to move to kalim and has to perform parhruilak.

Parhruihlik:- If any of the office bearer (kalaim, kabur and chapia) abstain from his dignity due to physical disable, old age, mental disorder by other unavoidable circumstances, he/ party has to perform the parhruihlik ceremony.