

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

In accomplishment of my studies, I express my heartfelt thanks to the Cachar Hill Theological School for granting my application to prosecute further study leading to Bachelor of Divinity (B.D.) and for extending some financial assistance.

I am deeply indebted to the Tangram Presbytery for the full financial support during my years of study at Azimul Theological College and for the prayerful support of the churches. My humble thanks also go to my local church Loshur and Zim for supporting me through constant prayer and help occasionally.

While writing this thesis, I owe my special debt of gratefulness to many church leaders, pastors and knowledgeable persons who brought traditional culture from whom I collected a great deal of materials as the primary sources of my research. Without their help this work would have never been completed.

DEDICATED

to

my beloved parents
Church Elder. Sondarzing (L)
&
Mrs. Roikhumhoi (L)
