

AN EVALUATION OF
THE IMPACT OF CHRISTIANITY ON THE HRANGKHWAL TRIBE IN TRIPURA

A

Thesis

Submitted to the

Senate of Serampore College

(University) in partial fulfillment of the Requirement for the

Degree of Bachelor of Divinity

Zingzembul Hrangkhoh
Registration No: BD10968/10

Aizawl Theological College
March, 2012

*Dedicated to
My Beloved Parent
Mr. Darsumlal & Mrs. Lalnemhli
Hrangkhol*

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Bachelor of Divinity (BD) Course would not have been possible without the help and support of many people, only some of whom can be singled out in this acknowledgement. First of all, I am deeply indebted to my thesis guide Rev. B. Zohmangaiha, for his encouragement and guidance.

My sincere thanks to Aizawl Theological College for helping and accepting me to study at the College without which, it would be impossible for me to study BD. I would also like to recognize the Ramhlun Pastor Bial Kohhran Hmeichhia for their financial supports.

Appreciative credits goes to Rev. Joy Kumar Hrangkhawl and Mr Samram Hrangkhawl for their helps and guidance, and also to my Church, Zion Presbyterian Church, Tangram Presbytery and Cachar Hill Tribes Synod for allowing me to study BD and for providing financial support all through my course.

Sincere thanks also go to Mr. Pynhunlang Shullai and Rev. Lalpianglawma who had helped me in many ways during my BD studies. I would like to express my sincere thanks to Mr. & Mrs. Simon Hrangkhawl, Mr. Dulal Hrangkhawl for hosting me during my field research in Tripura.

My immense gratitude goes to my uncle Rev. Lalneithang Hrangkhol, my dear parent, brothers and sisters without whose faithful encouragement and prayer support, my theological journey would never have reached this far.

Last and the most important, I thank God for blessing me with health, wisdom and knowledge and everything I need.

Zingzembul Hrangkhol
ATC, Mizoram